OVERVIEW

Heather Nielsen requests a conditional use permit Conditional Use Permit for an Art Gallery in the William D. Roberts Home located at 212 North 500 West. This property has been used for a number of commercial businesses on the main floor and currently contains a residential dwelling unit on the second floor. The Landmarks Commission is tasked by ordinance to review land use applications pertaining to properties listed on the Provo Landmarks Register. The commission reviewed the suitability of the application to the historic property and has provided a recommendation of approval to the Planning Commission.

PLANNING REVIEW

1. Compliance with 14.02.040
   The ordinance, in part, is as follows:
   (1) The Planning Commission may, subject to the procedures and standards set forth in this Chapter, grant, conditionally grant, or deny an application for a Conditional Use Permit for uses allowed by the chapter for the applicable zone. The purpose of a Conditional Use Permit is to allow proper integration of uses into the community which may only be suitable in specific locations and may have potentially detrimental characteristics if not properly designed, located, and conditioned.

   (2) The following standards shall apply to any request for a Conditional Use Permit:
   (a) A proposed conditional use shall be granted unless the subject use will be detrimental to the health, safety, or general welfare of persons residing in the vicinity or injurious to property in the vicinity.
   (b) A proposed conditional use shall be detrimental to the health, safety, or general welfare of persons residing in the vicinity or injurious to property in the vicinity:
      (i) if the proposed use will cause unreasonable risks to the safety of persons or property because of vehicular traffic or parking, large gatherings of people, or other causes;
      (ii) if the proposed use will unreasonably interfere with the lawful use of surrounding property;
      (iii) if the proposed use will create a need for essential municipal services which cannot be reasonably met;
      (iv) if the proposed use will in any other way be detrimental to the health, safety or general welfare of persons residing in the vicinity or injurious to property in the vicinity.
   (c) A change in the market value of real estate shall not be a basis for the denial of a proposed conditional use.
   (d) If a part of a proposed conditional use is found to be contrary to the standards described in this section, the applicant may propose or consent to curative measures which will make the proposed use not contrary to the standards described in this section.
The proposed conditional use will not be detrimental to the health, safety, or general welfare of persons residing in the vicinity or injurious to property in the vicinity as analyzed with the above criteria as follows.

i. the proposed use is not anticipated to generate dangerous amounts of vehicular traffic or parking or cause large gatherings of people. The proposed use is less intense than the photography studio use that formerly occupied the building.

ii. the proposed use will not interfere with the lawful use of surrounding property as it will not generate any impacts readily evident to surrounding properties.

iii. the proposed use will not create any additional need for essential municipal services.

iv. there are no other anticipated detriments to the health, safety, or general welfare of persons residing in the vicinity or injurious to property in the vicinity.

2. Project Plan Approval
   No project plan is required as no alternations are being made to the exterior of the building or to the site.

3. Design Review
   Not applicable.

4. Landscaping
   Not applicable.

5. Trash Container Enclosure
   Not applicable.

6. Fencing
   Not applicable.

7. Parking
   Not applicable.

8. Signage
   Not applicable.

9. Transitional Development Standards
   Not applicable.

10. Design Corridor
    Not applicable.

11. Other Concerns
    None
CONCLUSIONS

The proposed conditional use meets the requirements of Provo City Code and should be approved.

STAFF PRESENTATION
The Staff Report to the Landmarks Commission provides details of the facts of the case and the Staff’s analysis, conclusions, and recommendations. Key points addressed in the Staff’s presentation to the Landmarks Commission included the following:

Heather Nielsen requests a conditional use permit Conditional Use Permit for an Art Gallery in the William D. Roberts Home located at 212 North 500 West. This property has been used for a number of commercial businesses on the main floor and currently contains a residential dwelling unit on the second floor. The Landmarks Commission is tasked by ordinance to review land use applications pertaining to properties listed on the Provo Landmarks Register. The commission will review the suitability of the application to the historic property and provide a recommendation to the appropriate decision making body. In this case, the Landmarks Commission will provide a recommendation to the Planning Commission which will hear the conditional use application and make a final decision.

Section 16.02.020, Provo Code establishes the duties and powers of the Landmarks Commission including the following:
(4) Review all applications for rezoning, conditional use permits, and variances which apply to designated or formally nominated, historic resources. Recommendations of the Commission shall be forwarded to the Planning Commission, Board of Adjustment, or Municipal Council, depending on which body makes the final decision on the matter.

The art gallery and studio requested under the Conditional Use Permit is limited to the interior of the house and no changes are proposed to the exterior.
Because no changes are proposed to the exterior of the house or property to accommodate the proposed use, staff has no concerns with the application.

NEIGHBORHOOD AND PUBLIC COMMENT
The Neighborhood Chair was not present during the hearing.
Neighbors or other interested parties were present or addressed the Landmarks Commission.

Jeremy King of 470 West 200 North stated he feels that an art gallery is one of the best possible uses he can imagine. He expressed his support for the applicant’s proposal.

Marilyn Daniels 174 North 400 West expressed her support for the applicant’s application.

CONCERNS RAISED BY PUBLIC
No concerns were raised by the public.

APPLICANT RESPONSE
Key points addressed in the applicant’s presentation to the Landmarks Commission included the following:

Heather Nielsen explained that the proposed use of the building is for an art gallery for Glen Hopkinson. It will be a legacy gallery meaning that although it is a commercial gallery, it will not feature other artists.

LANDMARKS COMMISSION DISCUSSION
Key points discussed by the Landmarks Commission included the following:

Diane Christensen asked for clarification about the adequacy of parking for the proposed use. Staff explained that while the site does have adequate parking based on the applicable parking requirements, that the Conditional Use Permit hearing will analyze any adverse effects resulting from the proposed use including those related to parking.

Matt Christensen expressed his satisfaction at the thorough review process being conducted for this application.

Jeff Ringer asked staff to review the prior uses of the property. Staff explained that the property has been a mixed use commercial and residential property since the late 1970’s.

Susan Fales asked for clarification regarding changes to the exterior of the building or site. Staff reiterated that there are no such changes proposed by the applicant.

Jeff Ringer stated that the application seems to be a very straightforward case.

Diane Christensen added that the proposed use is an awesome use of a historic building.
